Section 1: Growth and Domestic Product

What does the Gross Domestic Product (GDP) show about the nation's economy? GDP shows how well a nation's economy is doing on a yearly basis. Because it measures only the products produced within a nation's borders, it is a good indicator of the performance of a nation's economy.

Slide 1

In Section 1, you will

- define GDP and describe how it is measured
- explain how GDP has certain limitations
- identify other national income accounting measures
